Commissee west Exercises Sermon Betwee the Graduating Class—Free Sistence Sermon Betwee States Society Address to the Young Lades Society Address to the Young Lades I state Judge Smith.

(Correspondence of the Cheage Tribune)

The stretches of commisseement week opened with a sermon to the graduating class, by President Gregory, at the Bapitiat Church on Sunday Allemona. The sermon was founded apon the secount of the Savior's temptation, Math. Iv., 1, 11. The temptations presented to the Savior strength on the Savior strength of the Chemptation to which the young of either sex are liable, as they emerge from youth and enter on the seems of more sedire and mature like. Ist The temptation to use the divinely granted endowments for securing worldly possessions; the means of present grainfaciation and of rature securalistion. Sch. The temptation to seek for fame, to grainfy yantly, so combined with this, to rely upon the Drivine Power under curcumstances in which such a reliance was not warranted, 3d. The temptation to searfice principles and duly for the strainment of power, a temptation disguised, it may be under a faccinating picture of the beneficent use that may be made of the power thus sequired.
